whether a machine, a shovel, or a suit of clothes. If a thing is made appropriate to its purpose it is bound to give satisfaction. This is strikingly true of Men's Clothes.

The individual, custom tailored suit will wear better and last longer than a readymade suit of clothes for it is designed and created for the individual who is to wear it.

The passenger department of the Denver and Rio Grande is getting out a new form of ticket. Heretofore, there was a complete line of forms for each one of the Colorado road's connections. But the new form of ticket has but one coupon on which is printed the names of the various connecting lines, and one line desired is printed. This will save an entire sheet of paper previously used, besides doing away with the long string of coupons.

Fire Chief Nick Bernhardt has had his department increased by seven more horses, horses who are to run from Ogallala to Green River. Utah-Idaho Motor company is to take care of the new chemical engine and furnish a driver for the same at twenty-five dollars monthly. The contract is for two years.

O. H. Gillispie's road camp crew finished up their work on the Castle Dale road and returned to this city Tuesday evening, says Green River Dispatch. They may well feel proud of the work they have accomplished.

If the road is to be continued to the south there will be little or no income gained from motorists who make use of the road. Every man in Gillispie's crew was a diligent, interested worker and it was truly wonderful the amount of work they would accomplish in one day.

Funeral services for Charles F. Robinson were held at the Tabernacle last Monday afternoon, conducted by Bishop Albert Bryan of the Price ward. The remains were brought here from Wyoming. Deceased was about 20 years of age and at one time lived here. He leaves a wife, mother and one brother, William Robinson of Price, and another brother, Claude, the latter residing at Hayden in the Uintah Basin country. The latter attended the funeral. The dead man was a laborer and bore a most splendid reputation among all who knew him.

David, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. VanWagoner of Sunnyside, died at a Salt Lake City hospital last Sunday of appendicitis, following an operation. His services were held in the ward meeting house at Sunnyside on Tuesday last. Being very largely attended by relatives and sympathizing friends of the family. Joe Halverson has given bonds in the sum of five hundred dollars before Justice Frost of Helper to his appearance at the next term of the San Juan county district court. G. W. Morris claims that Halverson dragged his wife into the house in which he was living at Helper, where an attempted assault was committed. The woman alleges she fought and struggled with her assailant and did not escape until she was very roughly handled. Mrs. Morris was examined by a physician whom it is said, found her suffering from shock and her hair covered with numerous bruises and contusions.

Charles M. Freedman and Samuel Baum, proprietors of the Council Bar at Price, City, were arrested Friday by David Thomas deputy United States marshal, on indictments returned against them by the recent grand jury. The price has steadily increased since the European war broke out, when it ranged around fifty cents an ounce.

Says Mayor's Record of last Friday: "Strenuous efforts are being made to have this end of the Price and Myton road designated as a state road. This week many letters were written to the state road commission. It is rumored that J. P. McMillan and family may move back to Vernon from Price since the business of his son's place, however, seems to be prospering. He is connected with the road commission and has been working at Price for some time. The road commission has been asked to furnish him with a room in which he can reside.
